waters; sixteen giant turtles from Mexico; several large Eagle rays; sea horses from Florida and a giant northern octopus. Marineland of the Pacific is owned and operated by Oceanarium, Inc., was designed by Pereira & Luckman, architects and engineers and was built by the George A. Fuller company. It is patterned after the Marine Studios, Marineland, Florida, however they are separate organizations. Also opening Saturday will be a post office, gift shop and snack bar. Still under construction on the 65-acre site are the Marineland restaurant and Marineland Inn for tourist accommodations.

minimum number of signatures needed were 347. There are 1387 registered voters within the area.

FIRST RESIDENT—The first sea animal to enter the Oceanarium at Marineland of the Pacific was Miss Grande Cahuama, the 300 pound green turtle from Mexico. Curator Kenneth Norris received the turtle into the quarantine flume between the two Oceanarium pools. Fifteen of the great turtles will be included in the Marine display which will open Saturday, August 28, at the Oceanarium, located on the Palos Verdes Peninsula.
